

General Info

infrastructureSquad is an initiative that promotes IT Infrastructure Operations as a vehicle to teach youth and encore career seekers about the practical applications of computer science and engineering. We provide hybrid training, mentorship, and opportunities for participants to work on real-world products and services that support their local communities.

Resources | Training | Internships | Mentoring

Revision #5

Created 18 November 2024 00:47:13 by Michael Barrow

Updated 19 November 2024 06:25:31 by Michael Barrow